

Social Protection in Disaster Risk Management phases

Learning laboratory

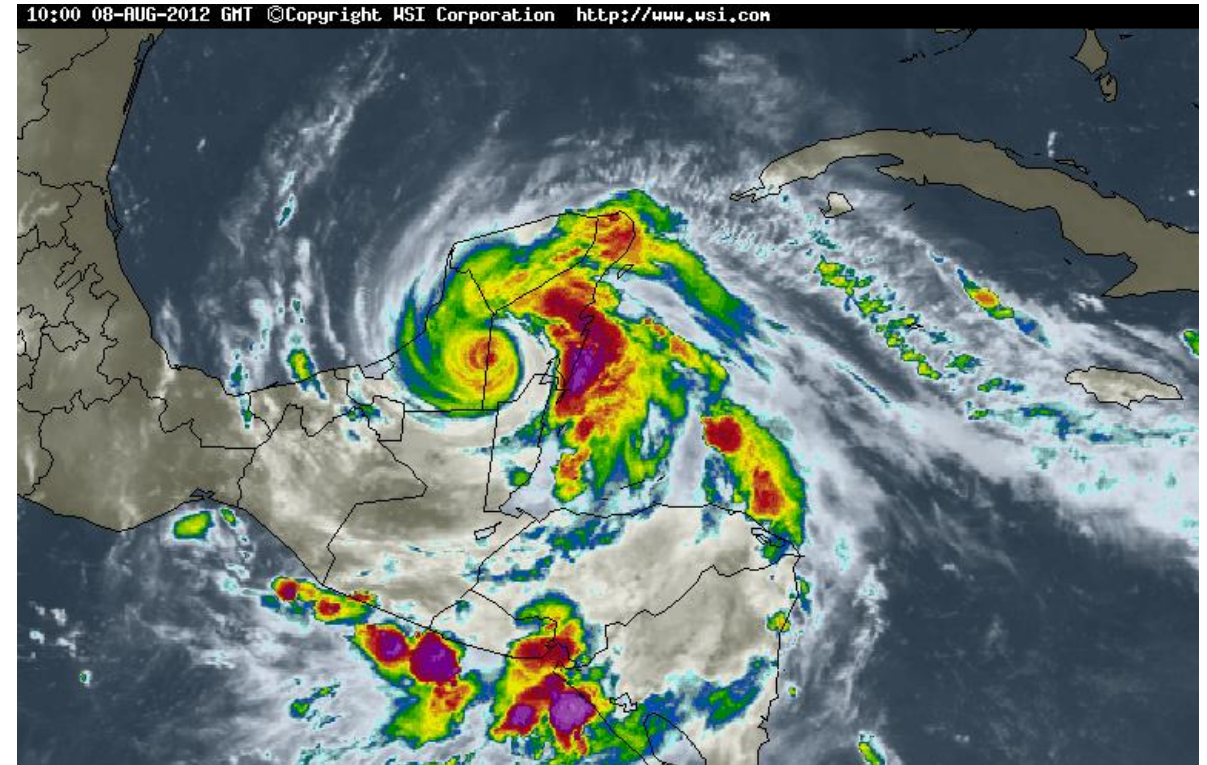

Verhonica Zamudio Santos PhD

September 19, 2023

Belmopan, Belice

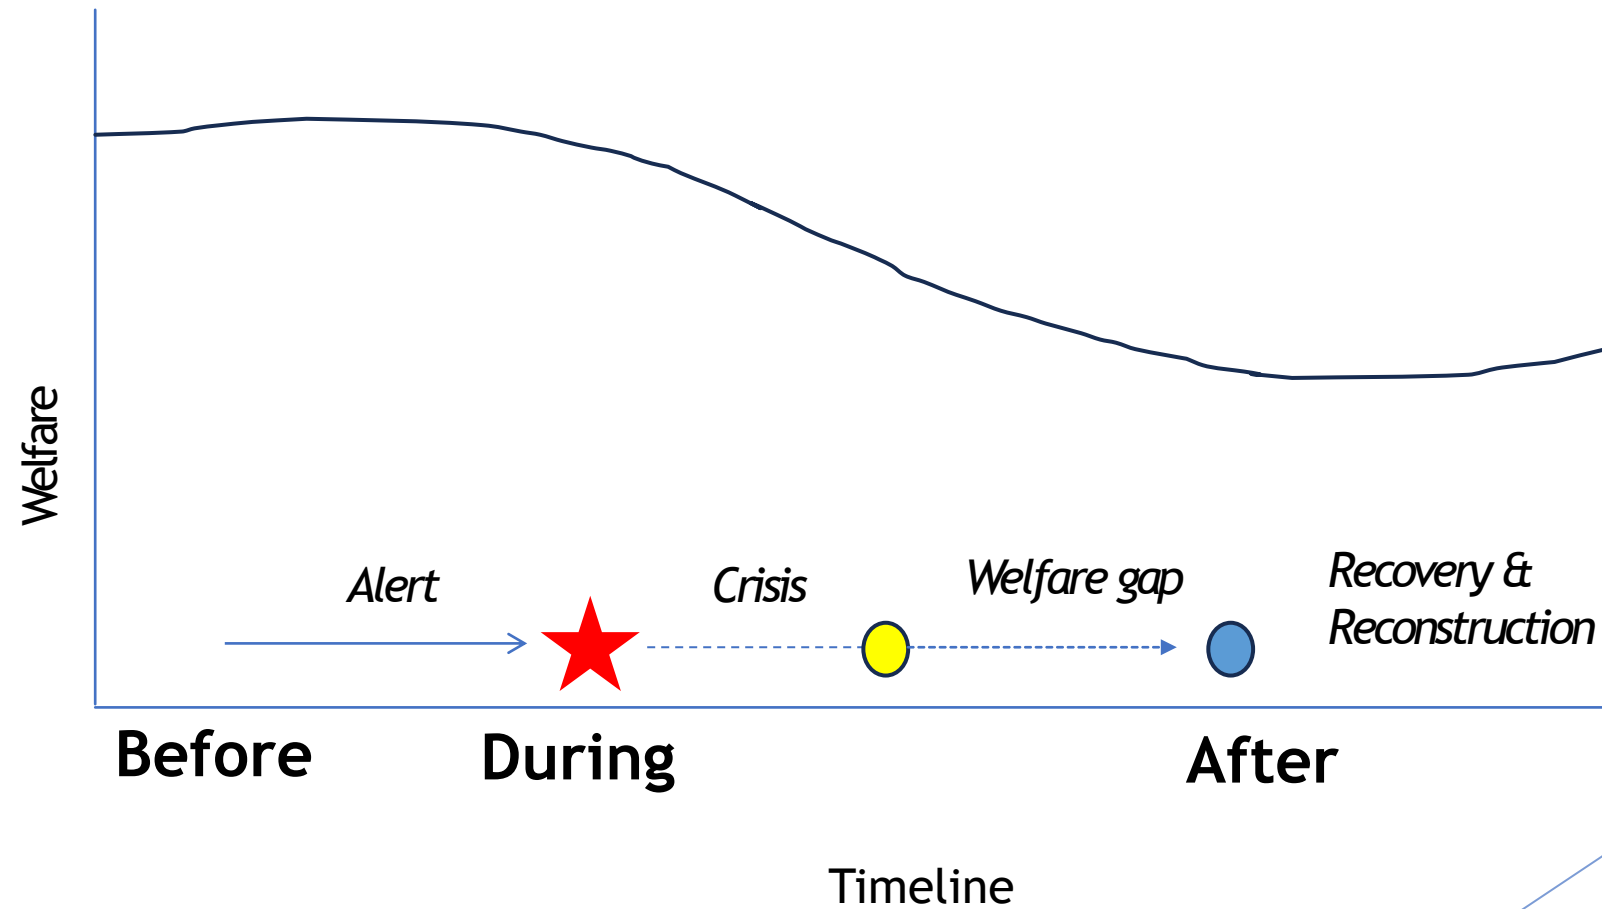

Hypothetical disaster scenario

- ▶ Category 1 hurricane makes landfall in Belize causing more than 10,000 people affected, about 2,100 families. Approximately 200 people need shelter due to risk of exposure. (Similar to Hurricane Earl, 2016).

Esta foto de Autor desconocido está bajo licencia CC BY-NC-ND

Three principal moments

Institutional actions to face hypothetical disaster scenario

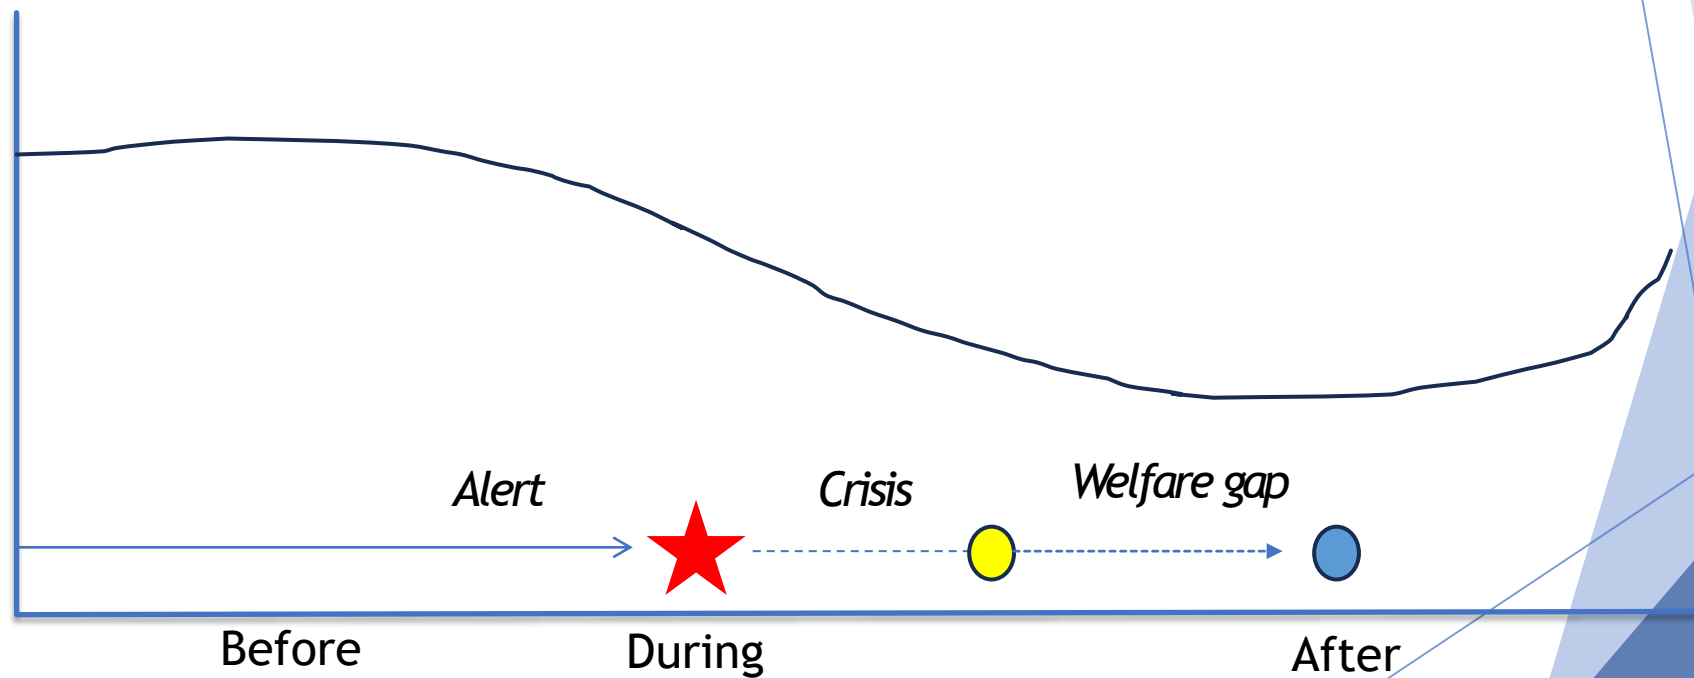

Objective	Protection of life and physical integrity	Stabilization. basic services	Recovery of livelihoods Housing reconstruction & improvements Care of children, people with disabilities and elderly people
Institutions
Functions & program

Institutional actions to face hypothetical disaster scenario

Institutional actions to face hypothetical disaster scenario

- ▶ What are the principal organisation functions in the five pillar of Disaster Risk Reduction?

Prevention

Mitigation

Preparedness

Response

Recovery

Thank you

Verhonica Zamudio Santos
Investigadora (Seguridad Social)

+52 55 5377 4700

verhonica.zamudio@ciss-bienestar.org

San Ramón s/n, Col. San Jerónimo
Lídice, 10200, CDMX

www.ciss-bienestar.org

Capacity & Vulnerabilities

▶ Capacity

- Combination of all the strengths, attributes and resources available to manage adverse conditions, risk or disasters
- Includes infrastructure, institutions, human knowledge and skills, and collective attributes

▶ Vulnerability

- Conditions which increase the susceptibility to the impacts of hazards
- Includes physical, social, economic and environmental factors or processes